

MEDIA RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rumson, NJ- Rumson was excited to invite Tim Rohrer, founder of Tips4Inclusion, to speak with students. Tim's message was powerful and resonated deeply with the student body. His advocacy for inclusion and empowerment of individuals with disabilities brought a new perspective to the students, inspiring them to embrace diversity and foster a sense of belonging for everyone in their community. By sharing his personal experiences and insights, Tim instilled a sense of empathy and understanding among the students.

During his visit, Tim Rohrer captivated the audience with his dedication to breaking down barriers and promoting inclusivity in all aspects of life. His impactful storytelling and engaging speaking style created a memorable experience for all who attended. Whether he was sharing his own journey or offering practical tips for fostering a more inclusive environment, Tim's presence left a lasting impression on the students of Rumson. The event provided an opportunity for students to not only learn about inclusion but also to actively participate in the conversation. Tim's interactive approach encouraged students to ask questions, share their own thoughts, and embrace the value of diversity. It was a transformative experience that sparked meaningful discussions and motivated students to become catalysts for positive change in their school and community. By shedding light on the importance of inclusive practices and the power of empathy, he ignited a passion within the students to create a more inclusive and welcoming environment for individuals with disabilities. His message challenged the students to reevaluate their perspectives and encouraged them to approach diversity with an open heart and mind.

Tim Rohrer's presence in Rumson proved to be a source of inspiration and impact for both students and staff. His unwavering commitment to inclusion and empowerment has left an enduring mark influencing the community's approach to diversity and nurturing a sense of belonging for all. Jennifer Gibbons, Principal at FD, along with Brittaney Flynn, Acting-Principal at DP, and Dr. Michael Snyder, Director of Student Services, jointly express their deep gratitude for Tim Rohrer's visit to Rumson. They appreciate the positive influence he brought to students and staff highlighting his empowering message that emphasizes unity and empowerment. This impactful visit has resonated within the community inspiring continued efforts to cultivate a welcoming atmosphere.

The event was made possible thanks to the dedicated efforts of our PTO, which played a significant role in organizing and supporting Tim's visit. Their hard work and commitment to fostering a positive and inclusive environment within the school were instrumental in bringing Tim to Rumson. The PTO's contributions were essential in making the event a success and the school community was grateful for their invaluable support.
